name by a well-dressed and agreeable young man, who professed to be looking for a farm, and who had heard from a neighbor that Mr. Davis wanted to sell his. The farmer was persuaded to put a price on his property, and the two began an earnest discussion of the details of the bargain, withdrawing for the purpose to a shot retired from the crowd. While thus sengaged another young man appeared, and addressing the first, said.

"That fifty-cent ticket you bought on the tea has drawn a prize of $10. I collected the prize for you and here's the money."

The $10 was handed over, and both of the young men then invited the farmer to go with them to the place where a peddier was selling 50-cent packages of tea on a sort of lottery system, with prizes ranging from $5 to $100. If he would take a few chances with them, they said, they would guarantee him to win at least $100. The farmer demurred to the proposition, saying that it was against his principles to gamble. That talk won't pass," said one of the young men. "Why don't you tell the truth and say that you haven't got any money?"

"But I have got money." replied the farmer, growing anary at the taunt, and as much, I guess, as either of you chape has got."

The betyout the $10 I've just won," was the reply, "that you can't show enough money to buy a $0-cent pound of tea."

The farmer was now thoroughly indignant, and pulled out of his pocket a roll of bills amounting to about $100. The next instant he found himself dupled up by a sharp blow in the stomach, and before he could straighten himself up the bills were grabbed and the sharpers were gone. The dejected farmer and an officer spent the hours while the show was going on looking for the young men, but failed to find them.

C.C. SHAYNE

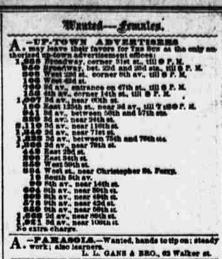

Oct 1, 1887. On account of the rainy weather during the past week preventing ladies from calling at our sales. rooms who had intended to take advantage of the bargains offered during the September Sealskin Sale, and as we have received numerous letters from out of town parties who are anxious to secure an elegant sealskin garment at the low prices at which they have been sold, we have decided to continue the sale for one week longer at the same low prices that made the September Sale so famous. Every garment sold was so handsome and the price so very reasonable that ladies who purchased have recommended others, and thus the sale has been the best advertisement our house has ever had. We do not manufacture any of the lower grades of Sealskins, which turn red and wear off on the edges after being worn one season. We manufacture only first quality of London-dressed Alaska Sealskin garments, which we know will wear well and give entire satisfaction. Handling furs in large quantities, manufacturing our own goods, and doing business on a side street, where rent is less than one-third of up-town or Broadway prices, we can afford and do sell the best furs at the lowest possible prices at which reliable goods can be produced. In order to give parties out of town who have written us, and every one who desires to take advantage of the splendid bargains, we will continue the sale during the coming week at the same prices which ruled during the great sale in September, thus giving ladies an opportunity to secure a strictly first-class Sealskin garment at manufacturers' lowest cash wholesale prices. We have several new styles in Sealskin Newmarkets, Sealskin Paletots, Sealskin Jackets, and Sealskin Sacques; also a full assortment of Gents' fur-lined Overcoats, Ladies' and Gents' Caps and Gloves, Fur Trimmings, Muffs, Boas, Rugs, and everything new and desirable in genuine Furs in the most fashionable styles.

Parties intending to purchase should not miss this splendid opportunity.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

If I had known of the CUTTOTHA MARKETTH vessely sight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (too hundred dollars) and as intrinses amount of sentenness By disease (Prorisels) commenced on my head in a spenet larger than a cent. It spraid raphily all ever my healy and got under my nails. The cables would drop of me all the time, and my suffering was encises and without relief. One thousand dollars would not sempetite. of me all the time, and my suffering was sudies: and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of that some of the feenpa me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of that some of the feetows and was leproay, some ringworm, mortant, de. I took, * * and * * f Saranperilias over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the Cutfloura Amardinas too much. They have made thy skin an dear and free from scales as a baby's. All I deed of them was three boxes of Cutfloura and three bostles of Cutfloura RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTGURA BOAF. If you had been here and said you would have eaged size for 2000,00 you would have had the money. I freched like the picture in your book of Frierians (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I san as clear as any person ever was. Through forces of habit I rub my hands over my arms and tegs to genetch once in a while, but to no purpose. I keen all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it for too be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a themself times. Anything more that you want to know write mt, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will know it.
